| Tom Hackley was present to discuss the Master Plan with the board. Hackley shared the results of the internal board member poll as well as survey highlights. Hall noted from the survey results that the public expressed interest in paying to support the parks. Hackley pointed out that 70% of survey participants were full-time residents. Sellers questioned if 187 replies out of about 3,000 residents is considered a successful survey. Hackley responded that it would be considered a healthy response. The board then reviewed their poll responses. There were 88 different topics voted upon and the board proceeded to discuss and rank them in importance, cost and feasibility. Once projects were ranked the board determined that the subcommittee will further review the points. | Special Meeting Discussion |
